PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1888.

FOSTER'S FORGERIES.

$25,000 More to Be Added to the $168,000 Found Yesterday.

His Alleged Niece Said to Be Not Related to Him.

An Order of Arrest and an Attachment Out for Him.

Every effort on the part of the Trustees of the Gratuity Fund of the Produce Exchange was made to suppress the fact that the fund had been victimized for a large amount by means of fraudulent and forged mortgages. THE EVENING WORLD, however, which gets and publishes all the news, had ferreted out this carefully concealed fact, and when it apeared on the street shortly after P. M. yesterday, announcing for the first time this stupendous swindle, the Produce Exchange officials removed the ban of secrecy from their lips and posted the facts in the case on the floor of the Exchange.

To-day's developments in the case are very interesting. Another mortgage, representing a loan of $25,000, has been found to be a forgery.

This increases the loss to the fund through the dishonesty of its counsel to

The trustees think this amount well repre sents the maximum of their loss. An attachment has been issued against the forger's property. An order of arrest is also out for him. BUMORS RIFE AT THE PRODUCE EXCHANGE.

On the floor of the Produce Exchange this morning the Foster forgeries were the absorbing topic of conversation among the

They could not have occurred it was stated gain and again without some negligence on the part of the trustees, and every one was on the qui vive for news. Rumors were rife that more fraudulent mortgages had been un-earthed, and that the loss would exceed $200,000, and this proved to be partially true. President Orr, who was reticent yesterday, after a conference with several of the other trustees and Lawyer Horace E. Deming in his office after his arrival this morning, talked freely.

HAVE THEY REACHED THE BOTTOM ? "We have got down to the bottom of the matter now," he said, "and in addition to the amount of the thirteen fraudulent mortgages discovered yesterday, there is only one more about which there is any unpertainty. It is for $25,000, and we are not able to say yet whether it is genuine or not. All the rest I can positively state are good, and in any case the loss will not exceed $193,000."

How about the liability of the trustees for this amount?"
Oh, there is not the slightest ground for charging any of the members of the Board for the loss. Outside of Mr. Fos-ter himself I do not believe there was a single person implicated in any of his transactions. He had been the attorney for the Exchange for sixteen years, and we trusted him implicitly." President Orr said in addition that Foster, and not his firm, was the attorney for the Exchange, and that he felt sincere grief for Mr. Wentworth, his partner, whom he believed to be entirely innocent of any of Foster's transactions.

st.

etta

45

4.1

Lı

4

hito-

CLA-

ter's transactions.

In reference to the appearance of the fraudlent mortgages, Mr. Orr said: THE SEAL WAS BLURRED.

THE SEAL WAS BLURRED.

"The Register's seal had a blurred look, and the certificate of recording was filled in a blank form, stamped in red ink at the bottom, closely resembling the stamp used by Bedell in the same sort of transactions.

"I know of no evidence, however, which implicates Foster with Bedell in his fraudulent operations. The latter began his forgeries eight years ago, while Foster's first transactions were in 1883."

Mr. Orr said that Foster's father had not been asked to make good his son's stealings.

He was reported to be worth about $800,000, but was a very conservative man and made no display of his wealth.

AN ORDER OF ARREST OUT.

AN ORDER OF ARREST OUT. Lawyer Horace E. Deming, who has charge of the Foster matter, was caught in his office by an Evenino Wolld reporter early this afternoon. He declined to be interviewed, giving as an excuse that he was in a hurry to giving as an excuse that he was in a hurry to eaich a train.

In answer to a note inquiring whether it was true that an attachment had been issued to seize $20,000 worth of Foster's property, and an order of arrest had been placed in the Sheriff's hands, he came out of his office, and raising his hands, exclaimed:

"I cannot be interviewed. The order of arrest and the attachment have both been fasued, and everything else in the world has been done to retrieve the stolen money."

MR. WENTWORTH WORSIED.

Mr. Wentworth, Foster's law partner, was at his office in the Produce Exchange Building early this morning looking over the papers of the firm. He looked worried and all broken

I would have believed this sooner of myself than of my partner," he said to a reporter of the EVENING WORLD." 'I thought that Will Foster was the straightest man in New York."

York."

What about his niece, who lives as his adopted daughter at Bayport, L. I.?"

It is perfectly true that she is his adopted daughter, but she is not his niece, or any relative, so far as I know. He adopted her five or six years ago and took out papers in the Court of Common Pleas.

Do you know anything of a conveyance to her by Mr. Foster of a large amount of property?"

Property ?"
Nothing whatever, I did not know that Mr. Foster owned very much property, certainly not $100,000 worth. There is nothing in the office that I ever saw that showed this."

THAT HE FORGED HIS FATHER'S NAME DENIED. "Have you any information regarding the report that he forged his father's name to a check for $9,000 before leaving town?"

"Not the slightest. He borrowed the money from the bank and gave his own note for part of the amount I understand, and some Gratuity securities for the rest. I do not know where he is now and have heard nothing from him since he went away. I expectively moment, however, to see his death announced, and it would not surprise me at all."

bound train yesterday afternoon at 2 r. m. and has not been seen since.

If she has followed Mr. Foster in his flight Pinkerton's men will find it an easy matter to track him.

Foster will not find Canada the place of refuge which it has been for so many of New York's secondarels and swindlers, if he has sought safety across her borders.

Lawyer John O'Connell, who was formerly Lawyer John O'Connell, who was formerly a notary in Foster's office, and whose name is on the forged mortgages, said:

"I have been associated with Mr. Foster for more than twelve years, and during that time I always looked upon him as a model man in business and in private life. I know absolutely nothing as to the irregularities with which he is charged in his private life, and if they are true he certainly concealed them in a most marvelleus manner."
"Do you know anything of his niece whom he adopted?"

by you know anything of his niece whom he adopted?"

"Nothing excepting she is not his niece, but a young girl to whom he had taken a liking and adopted legally. But I do not care to say anything more about that subject." And as he said he had a summons to appear at the Supreme Court and make an affidavit for an order of arrest and attachment against Foster, he hurried off.

JAMES P. FOSTER DOESN'T KNOW WHO MISS LULU POSTER IS EITHER.

An Evening World reporter called at the office of James P. Foster, a brother of the defaulting counsel of the Produce Exchange Gratuity Fund, this morning. Mr. Foster is a lawyer and practises at No. 154 Nassau street. There the reporter was informed that he was not in practises at No. 154 Nassau street. There the reporter was informed that he was not in, but could be found at the headquarters of the Republican League of the United States, of which he is the President.

Here Mr. Foster was found in his private office.

office.
'' Who is the young lady residing in your brother's house at Bayport?" was asked.

"The papers say she is his adopted daughter." was the answer.

"Is she his adopted daughter?" queried

the reporter.
"I don't know. The papers say so."
"Is she his niece?" was the next question. I don't know."
Did you ever meet her?" he was next asked.

"Yes," was the answer.
"Has your brother made over to her his Bayport property valued at $100,000?"
"I don't know."
"I don't know what has become of her?"

"Do you know what has become of her?"
"I do not." OOT HIS FIRST INFORMATION FROM "THE EVENING WORLD."

"Is it a fact that your brother raised $9,000 on your father's securities?"
"I don't know. I know nothing whatever of the matter. The first I knew that he had disappeared was when I read an account of the trouble in The Evening World last evening."

WHAT FOSTER'S NEPHEW SAYS.

William R. Foster, sr., the father of the Produce Exchange Gratuity Fund's missing counsel, is a wealthy dealer in flour and a member of the Produce Exchange.

His place of business is located in the large double building No. 25 Canal street. Here he occupies the entire four stories of the building and does a most extensive trade. He is a man of about sixty-five years of age.

When Tag Evening World reporter called there to-day he was informed that Mr. Foster was not in. was not in.

When he made known the object of his gentleman when he made known the object of his visit to the bookkeeper that gentleman promptly stated that Mr. Wm. R. Foster, jr., was his uncle.

"Do you know where your uncle is?" asked the reporter.

"He was at this office last Saturday, and since then I have not seen him," was the answer.

"Will was one of those fellows who had a great deal of leisure to himself," the young man went on, "and some one who attended to his business when he was away must be the guilty party. He had plenty of money, a good income and I know he would not do sach a thing." You know he travelled abroad for eight years, and upon his return put up at the Cumberland, in this city. He is a very im-Cumberland, in this city. He is a very impulsive fellow. During my vacation, three years ago. I was stopping near Bayport, L. I, and Will came to see me. We drove out to Bayport, and he saw the place he now lives in there and bought it.

"He never attended much to office business, but left that entirely to his partner, Mr. Wentworth."

THE FORGER'S FATHER.

While the reporter was conversing Wm. R. Foster, sr., entered.
The father had a far-away look in his eyes as though he were in deep thought. He bowed to the reporter, and when the latter asked him if it were true that he would make good the amount of his son's defalcation if it were proven that he was a defaulter, he smiled sadly and answered.

smued sadly and answered.

"The Trustees have not yet asked me to do so. I was at the Exchange yesterday and nothing was said about it."

"If they do ask you will you pay?"

"I am in no way interested, only in that he is my san."

is my son."

"It looks bad, don't it?" continued the father, "he disappearing just when he ought to be on hand to explain matters matters."

"Do you think he is guilty?" was the next

DID HE LOSE IT, IN STOCKS?

"He had a good income and everything that he could desire. If he took the money he must have lost it in stocks," was the

"Did be speculate in stocks ?"

"I don't know. I never knew much about his business matters."
"He called here frequently?"

"Yes, but we never talked over any of his business transactions. I have nothing more to say, It is an unfortunate affair."

With this the old man turned away, and, bidding the reporter "good day," sat down at his dask to write. at his desk to write.

THEY CAN'T ACCOUNT FOR IT.

THEY CAN'T ACCOUNT FOR IT.

The young man who had announced himself as the nephew of the absconding lawyer, said that he knew very little about his habits, excepting that he I ved modestly and quietly at his Bayport home.

He knew of no vice which his uncle possessed which would be such a drain upon his income as to cuse him to commit a crime of such magnitude as these forgeries to gratify it.

MISS LULU FOSTER IS NOT THE FORGER'S NIECF. Miss lullu poster is not the forece's Niece.

Questioned with reference to the girl Lulu Foster, who lived with the lawyer at his home in Bayport, and who is described as Mr.
Foster's niece and adopted daughter, the nephew was quite reticent, but by dint of persistent cross-questioning he was made to acknowledge that the girl is not in any way related to Foster.

She is now about eighteen years old, he said, and was adopted by Wm. R. Foster, jr., about five years ago.

said, and was adopted by win. R. Foster, Jr., about five years ago.

He did not know who her relatives were or where she would be liable to stop while in the city. Whough he visited his uncle at his home quite frequently, he says that he saw very little of Lulu.

Mr. Foster's nephew denied that his uncle's sister had died in Paris and that the young lady living at Bayport was her daughter.

SHE HAS LEFT, BAYPORT TOO. This young lady left Bayport on a west-

FOSTER NOT SAFE IN CANADA.

Foster will not find Canada the place of refuge which it has been for so many of New York's scoundrels and swindlers, if he has sought safety across her borders.

Forgery is an extraditable offense, and there are very few spots of solid ground on this globe where Foster can feet absolutely safe from the pursuit of the sleuth hounds of the law

VERY LIKE BEDELL'S PORGERIES.

So similar in their character and execution So similar in their character and execution were the forgeries charged against Foster to those which James E. Bedell acknowledges, that it was immediately asked: "Which was the tutor and which the pupil?"

Of course, these two men must be acquainted and cognizant of each other's misdeeds.

The Evening World was unable to ascertain if this is a fact.

tain if this is a fact. Judge Shipman, one of Bedell's employers, scouted the idea.

BEDELL WON'T BE INTERVIEWED. Bedell himself was sought at his cell in the Tombs.

He could not resort to that old dodge of "tell the geutleman I'm out" to rid himself of the reporter and to the polite request to interview him on the subject of the Gratuity Fund forgeries, he returned a very decided "No."

No." Warden Osborne explained that Mr. Bedell was confined to his room and unable to get out. He has been supplied with the daily papers and knew of the revelations involving Mr. Foster in forgeries similar to those com-mitted by himself. He is reported as having made no comment on the story, however PINEERTONS WONT TALK. Supt. Bangs, of Pinkerton's Detective Agency, refused to say snything regarding the pursuit of Foster, but volunteered the information that he would be only too glad to announce his capture. onnounce his capture.

One of the most surprised and shocked by the discovery of Foster's dishonesty was Col James M. Varnum, a lawyer, at 31 Nassau street, who lives at 34 Gramercy Park, who in 1881 and 1882 occupied a suite of rooms adjoining Foster's, in the Cumberland Apartment House.

adjoining Foster's, in the Cumberland Apartment House.

In an interview with an Evening World reporter to-day he said:

"I can hardly restlize, in fact, I am not yet prepared to believe that Will Foster is a thief. I was as intimate with him as any one could be, I suppose, and I always considered him to be the soul of honor."

"What were his habits, when he lived at the Cumberland?" asked the reporter.

"Excellent. He never played cards; rarely drank intoxicating liquors, and never to excess."

"Were you acquainted with his niece?"

rarely drank intoxicating liquors, and never to excess."

"Were you acquainted with his niece?"

"Not very well. I did not know much about her. I never met her until after Mr. Foster moved to Bayport. I have seen her only about six or seven times."

"It has been given out at Bayport that she is the child of a sister of Mr. Foster's, who died in Paris," said the reporter.

Mr. Varnum shook his head vigorous'y as he answered: "No, that is not so. In fact. Mr. Foster has only one sister, and she is still alive. I do not know where she is at present."

"Can you tell me whose child she is?"

"No, come to think of ft, I can not," replied the lawyer.

He declined to say whether Mr. Foster was ever engaged to be married or not and refused to be questioned any further.

NOT WELL KNOWN IN THE FAST RESORTS.

NOT WELL KNOWN IN THE PAST RESORTS. Foster was not known in any of the haunts of men about town in Police Capt. Reilly's tenderloin precinct. About three times a week he visited the University Club, at Madison avenue and Twenty-sixth street, of which he was a member. He generally called in the day time and never remained long, He was admitted to membership in the Club about three years ago.

WHAT'S UP AT THE UNION CLUB? At the Union Club, corner of Twenty-first treet and Fifth avenue, of which he was also a member, the clerk told an Evening World reporter this morning that he had re-ceived strict orders not to speak about Mr. Foster or his affairs.

reporter.
"That I am not at liberty to tell either," was the answer.

From another source it was learned that Foster had joined the Club'some time in 1881. At first'he was a frequent visitor, but gradually fell away, and recently jonly went to the Club at rare intervals.

HIS ROOMS AT THE CUMBERLAND. When Foster's mother died, about eight when Foster's mother died, about eight years ago, the remaining members of the family decided to separate, and they gave up their Madison avenue residence. Will Foster went to live in a suit of rooms with a Col. Varnum, on the fifth floor of the Cumberland bachelor apartment-house, corner of Broadway and Twenty-second street.

Reuben Howe is superintendent of the house. He said to the reporter to-day.

"I find it pays to know as little as possible about the tenants in the house and, there-

"I find it pays to know as little as possible about the tenants in the house, and, therefore, I can give you very little information about Mr. Foster. He came here in 1881, I think. I could not say what rent he paid. All expenses was shared by Col. Varnum. I went away from here in 1882 and did not return until 1886. Then I found that Mr. Foster had left while I was away. This is absolutely all I can tell you about him," concluded Mr. Howe.

After leaving the apartment-house Mr. Foster went to keep house in Bayport. L. I. Ward Detectives Brett and Hayes and Hoffman House Detective Jacobs, when interviewed by the reporter this morning, declared that they did not think that Foster ever was a "rounder" in that precinct any how.

DID WOMEN CAUSE HIS BUIN? It was stated upon reliable authority this morning that clear proof had been obtained of some of Foster's irregularities in private. He was at one time, it is said, a frequent visitor of a notorious house in Thirty-ninth street, and afterwards of another place in Charles street, where he was infatuated with a woman of more than questionable character.

Inquiry elicited the fact that she had left the house on Tuesday last, saying that she was going out of town, that she would not say where she was going. and that none of her acquaintances had heard anything of her since.

Foster disappeared about the same time.

ALL BAYPORT EXCITED.

Bayront, Sept. 29.—This morning William R. Foster, ir.'s handsome Queen Anne cottage, near the shore of the Great South Bay, is closed up as tight as a drum.

It is in charge of the servants, of which there are six-a coachman, footman, butler there are six—a coachman, footman, butler and three maids,

One of the maids was the bonne of Miss Foster, or as she is otherwise known, Miss Lulu Beloite, the niece of Mr. Foster and who calls herself Miss Foster, because she is his legally adopted daughter.

Since Mr. Foster left here on the 9 o'clock train Wednesday morning nothing has been seen or heard of him. He carried no baggare this morning the village was all agog about his disappearance and that of his niece, who left here yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, taking with her a plethoric gripmack.

Miss Foster, otherwise known as Lulu Beloite, is a good looking brunette between LA GRANGE BROWN'S BOAST. nineteen and twenty years of age.

She is known here as the daughter of Mr.
Foster's sister. Her mother, it is reported.

died in Faris some years ago.

Foster went over to Paris some years ago and brought Miss Beloite back with him.

When he built his villa here, about two years ago, his niece came with him. As soon years ago, his nicee came with film, As soon as his handsome dwelling was completed and luxuriously furnished she presided over it as the absolute mistress. Her word was law,

The pair were frequently to be seen driving about the village, and they also went off fishing together.

Postmaster Edwards was the skipper on these fishing trips.

these fishing trips.

Mr. Foster flew high. He entertained the Vanderbilts, the Van Renssehers, Roosevelts and other notable swells of society. His receptions were elegant and he spent money with a liberal hand. He was considered wealth.

ered wealthy.

It is said that Mr. Foster intimated that the house and grounds belonged to his niece.

The property is variously estimated to be verth from $50,000 to $100,000.

The general impression is that the niece has gone off to meet him.

The young man from Foster & Wentworth's law office in New York, who arrived here yesterday afternoon to take charge of the house, left last night on the 8.05 train for New York.

A desetive is restabling the house. A detective is watching the house.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND IS CONFIDENT. So Sald Col. Lamout, Who Is Making New York a Short Visit.

Col. Daniel S. Lamont, private secretary of President Cleveland, is in the city, a guest of the Hoffman House. He and Mrs. Lamont occupy Gov. Hill's suit of rooms, on the Twenty-fifth street side of the new annex to the hotel.

Col. Lamont left the hotel early this morning, and it is said that he called upon Collector Magone. Up to noon, he had not visited the headquarters of the National Committee, but he was expected

National Committee, but he was expected there this afternoon.

Col. Lemont's visit has occasioned much gossip, He says that he and Mrs, Lamont came on to attend the wedding of Gen. Schofield's daughter, which took place yesterday on Governor's Island.

A prominent member of the Democratic State Committee said to an Evening World reporter to day.

reporter to-day :
'I had a long talk with Col. Lamont last "I had a long talk with Col. Lamont has night. He says that President Cleveland is very confident of the result of the coming election. He has no doubt of New York going Democratic. Since his arrival yester-day afternoon, Col. Lamont has had confer-ences with Col. Brice, Chairman of the Na-tional Campaign Committee, and with ex-Senator Murths. Chairman of the State Cam-paign Committee. They gave him encourse.

saign Committee. They gave him encourage ing news.

I am led to believe from what I have "I am led to believe from what I have heard that Col. Lamont will have interviews with Commissioner Croker and Judge Power before he returns to Washington."

ESCAPED BY TELEGRAPH WIRES. How Two Persons Got Out of Harm at Fire in Chicago To-Day.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Fire destroyed th milding of S, G. Wilkins & Co., furniture manufacturers, on Lake street, this morning. doing $75,000 damage. The blaze started in the rear of the building and ran up to the floor and roof by the elevator shaft,

It was in the heart of the business centre and great excitement prevailed. In the same block is the Sprague, Warner & Co. grocery house and other wholesale firms.

Two employees escaped by telegraph wires, and one was rescued by the firemen when insensible from smoke.

A Note Gone Astray. Wall street was notified to-day of the loss by the County National Bank of a note of Donalds. Bros., of Five Points, for $2, 265, paid yesterday.

The Quotations.

Open, High, Low.

1	OPTIN,	gright.	Little.
1	Canada Southern 54%	55%	54%
п	Canada Southern	635a	61%
н	Ghesapeaks & Ohio 20%	9.4	2014
н	Chesapeake & Onio 1st pfd 165	17	20.0
п	Chesapeake & Ohio 1st pfd 1654	4.4	107
п	Chesapeake & Onio 2d pid 15%	18%	18%
П	Chicago, Burl. & Quincy 11. 16 Chicago & Northwest 115	116	11036
п	Ohlesen A Northwest 115	1155:	1143
П	Unicago a Mortingens,	6834	120
П	Chic. Mil. & St. Paul.	0834	6834
п	Chic., Mil. & St. Paul prd. 1094	10.0%	109M
н		111136	111
ч	Chicago & Eastern Illinois 41% Chicago & Eastern Illinois pfd. 91%	4116	4114
0	Chicago & Eastern Illinois pfd 91%	94%	9434
Л	Onicago & Lastern tilinois pid pist		119.79
-	Cip., Ind., St. L. & Chic.,,,,,,,,,,	9134	9136
-	Col. & Hocking Valley 26%	2636	26%
-	Col & Hecking Class 24%	241	24%
- 1	Consultdated Gas 8236	82%	8234
6	Consomination trans.	143%	143%
9	Delaware, Lackawanna & Western 143%	140/6	140.6
	Delaware & Hudson 119%	119%	1103
	Consolidated Gas. 8236 Delaware, Lackawanna & Wastern 1435 Delaware & Hudson. 1195 Dencer & Rio Grande pfd. 541a	5436	64%
	K. Tenn., Va. & Georgia 10%	1014	10%
1	Fast Tenn. Va. & Ga. let pfd. 73	73	78
	Fast Tenn., Va. & Ga. 2d pid 241.	Det.
		18%	24%
	Ind., Bloom, & Western 185	18%	183%
	Lenisville & Nashville	6937	611
ij	Lake Shore. 1024 Lake Krie & Western 18% Lake Krie & Western pfd. 54%	108	102%
- 1	Lake Erie & Western	18%	18%
	Twee Ettle & Members,	2.77	10.00
	Lake Erie & Western pfd 54%	0436	D4.36
		42	42
	Manhattan Consol 954	96%	95%
	Mich. Central 1036	91%	9036
	Mich. Obbits Lat Vanis	7.47	40.72
	Mich. Central	-4	2.4
	Minneapolis & St. Louis, pfd 16%	17	16%
	Missouri Pacific 8136	84	81%
Ü	Missouri Pacitic	1236	1734
		89	89
	New York Contral		100%
	New York Sentral,	110%	T0375
	N. Y. & New England 40%	4117	48%
ч	N. Y., Chr. & St. Louis 125	1337	1942
	N. V. Chic. A St. Louis 1st pfd. 75	75	75
	W V Lake Frie & Western 90%	30%	29%
n	N. T. Lake Line & Western and	1.5%	200
	N. Y., Lake tille & Western pro base	1.1374	65
Ü		11	10%
	N. V., Susq. & West, pfd	8734	257
	N. Y., Sneq. & West, pfd	57	5637
	Northern Pacific 274	27.6	277
	Production Production and Production	2113	2110
	Northern Pacific pid 61%	6134	6136
ď	Ohio & Mississipple 25%	25%	25%
	Ontario & Western 1736	1170	1776
	Oregon Banway & Nav 95	95	95
n	Ortario & Western 17% Oregon Raiway & Nav 95 Oregon Transcontinental 11%	3154	31
۲	Oregon Improvement	6136
ľ		0.0.76	69%
١	Oregon Short Line	34%	25.6 %
	Pacine Matt 37%	28%	3724
	Phita Jelphia & Heading 52%	625
	Dullman Dalace Car Co.	17476	174%
	Diet A Wast Porns Tor	2	6477
•	Rich & West Point Ter. 22   R. h. & West Point Ter. ptd   72   R. h. & West Point Ter. ptd   72   R. Paul & Omesh.   41   R. Faul & Omesh.   41   R. Faul & Omesh.   103   R. Paul, Mirn. & Manitolia,   103   R. Paul, Mirn. & Manitolia,   103   R. Paul, Mirn. & Manitolia,   104   R. Faul & Omesh.   105   R. Paul, Mirn. & Manitolia,   105   R. Paul, Mir		14/4
	B . b. & West 1'o u. Ter. pld 73 5	7336	78
٠	St. Paul & Omah 41%	4234	4130
	St. Paul & Omsha old 199%	10	10936
i.	ht Paul Mich & Manitoha 105	10554	105
۴	St. Louis & San Francisco pfd 72	7.00	71%
	1 31. Lunis a can rianciaso pro 12	100
	Texas Pacific 25%	71774	2014
ľ	Tenn. Cost & Iron	22	3112
	Union Pacific	6736	6.13
ľ	Wab. St. Louis & Pacific ord 27%	204	571
	Western Union Telegraph 84%	85	8115
	Wheeling & Lake Krie 58%	2000	04.14

New York Markets,

New York Markets.

Wheat.—The reports from all over the country show that the general impression among wheat speculators is that all the large shorts have teen covered and therefore the prices keep well up, but trailing is comparatively light. In Chicago Sept. onened at last night's closing figure, 181.25, and an hour later had jumped 10 cents, to $1.35. Dec. opened 1e. up, at 994c., and advanced to $1.045. May onened lage up at $1.015, went to $1.02, but fell to the opening figure. The news of course, excerted a similar effect on the New York Market, and at the opening hee, was $4c, above last night's clearing at $1.034. Later on, the quotation advanced to $1.035, May opened at it, advance at $1.034 and soon went to $1.034, but before moon fell again to $1.036. Market was strong, but the trading light.

COTTON.—Futures opened quiet at 1 point decline Oct. 9.64; Nov. 9.66; Dec., 9.66; Jan., 2.72; Peb., 9.80; March. 9.88; April, 9.97; May, 10.06; June, 10.14; July, 10.23. Liverpool quiet but steady.

COPPER.—Sopt. opened unchanged at 18.30. Other months advanced 30 points. Oct. 11.05; Nov., 12.05; Dec., 11.66; Jan. 11.20; Feb. March. April, May, June, July, 11.10; Aug., 11.15. Market steady. Hamburg firm. Havre steady.

Petroleum.—Cerificates opened firm at $6. advance at 945c, and declined to $1.95c. Just before noon, however the quotation recovered to 945c.

IS IT TRUE THAT BROOKLYN SOCIETY GIRLS POSED FOR HIM?

Sensation Looms I'p in the Photograph Scandal Case Gen. Cottin Belleves that the Indecent Pictures Were Taken from Life-The Fashiounble Young Amateur in Judge Massey's Court To-Day.

▶La Grange Drown, the expert amateur electrician, microscopist, physician and surgeon, and savant in pude feminine love. iness, who was captured in a Brooklyn saloon with a hundred or more portraits of young women, taken in the garb of Eve before the fall, and in various compromising attitudes, appeared in Judge Massey's Police Court, Breoklyn, this morning.

His trial for having in his possession obcene pictures and for offering them for sale had been set down for to-day, and he came into court with his counsel, Gen. Catlin, a young man and his bondsman, John Wiley, of 85 Hicks street, Brooklyn Heights.

When arrested Brown was in a state of collapse from drink and shivered as pitifully as the famous Mr. Dolls in "Our Mutual

But to-day quite another person was he.

The whiskey was out of him and he was left a pleasant, though not strong-faced young man of twenty-eight years, clad in a perfect fitting dark suit.

young man of twenty-eight years, clad in a perfect fitting dark suit, a shiny silk hat with a weed, and immaculate linen. One could readily understand how fascinating this young man might be to the susceptible female heart.

He is the same young Mr. Brown whose wronged young wife was granted an absolute divorce by Judge Potter a year ago, on the most damaging and unspeakable evidence.

The agents of the Society for the Suppression of Vice were there with the evidence against Brown, but Judge Massey was out of town, and Gen. Catlin agreed with them to try the case next Thursday.

Brown has beasted, it is said, that he has taken lewd pictures of several of the daughters of Brooklyn's most respected families, and since his arrest several anxious and since his arrest several anxious fathers, paid attorneys and other interested parties have called on the agent of the Society with portraits of their daughters or the daughters of their clients for comparison with Brown's collection of 250 negatives. And it was found that the faces in some of

And it was found that the faces in some of Brown's pictures were very like some of those in these portraits, but it is believed that Brown has produced the pictures by photographing the nude figures of members of the demi-monde here and in other cities; has obtained copies of the portraits of innocent and respectable girls, denoted the heads and faces and attached them to these nude bodies, after which he has copied them into new photographs.

If this is the case the work has been very skilfully done, for the place of jointure is not discernible, and the heads are poised natnot discernible, and the heads are poised nat-not discernible, and the heads are poised nat-urally.

An expert might do this, as was shown in Dr. Griffith's suit against a London artist for circulating indecent pictures of Mary Ander-son. The doctor could not prove that they had been produced in this way and therefore lost his aut.

Gen. Catlin insists that Brown's pictures were not produced in this way, and wants to were not produced in this way, and wants to prove it. If the question is raised by per-mission of the, Court there will be a sensation

MAYORALTY PROSPECTS. Commissioner Croker and Judge Power Breathe Mutual Defiance. The armed neutrality between Tammany

Hall and the County Democracy in regard to the local ticket continues. The friends of Joseph J. O'Donohue aver that Mayor Hewitt will not find fault with Mr. O'Donobue if he should be nominated by Tammar, Hall for Mayor.

Commissioner Croker said to-day:

"It is about time for Mayor Hewitt to make another attack on Tammany Hall. I notice that he never attacks the County Democracy as a machine or its leaders as machine politicians."

Judge Powers remarked to a news-gatherer: 'If there is no union Tammany Hall will be to blame. Tammany Hall is deter-mined in its efforts to get Mayor Hewitt out of the City Hall.

"The fight will be, if there is one—and there is every chance of one—a fight between Tam-many Hall and Mayor Hewitt. The County Democracy will side with Mayor Hewitt."

BROOKLYN NEWS. Mrs. Schreiver Has a Close Call on a Level

Railroad (rossing. Mrs. Ellen Schreiver, of 1996 Atlantic avenue, had a very narrow escape from death this morning. She was crossing the track of the Long Island Railroad Company on Atlan-tic avenue, near Ralph, when an engine steamed down the track. steamed down the track.

Before she could get out of the way the draw bar which projects from the front of the engine struck her in the back and threw her upon the up-track. She was picked up scratched and bruised.

The Second Peep Brought Trouble. At 1 o'clock this morning Peter Flynn, of 73 Heater street, saw a man peeping into his bedroom and frightened him off by shouting. Then he watched for his respicarance. Two hours after the man again peeped in and. Flynn called Officer watered to be respectated. Two modes are the man again peeped in and Flynn called Officer Hanson, of the Eldridge street station.

In the Essex Market Police Court to-day the prisoner gave the name of James McAvery, of 421 East Eleventh street, He was committed to the minn for six months.

A Quartet of Burglars.

Officers Snyder and Birmingham, of the Delancey street police station, were kept busy this morning arresting burgiars, and as a result of the work arraigned four of them in the Essex Market Police Court. They were William O'Keefe, of 6 0 Water street; John McDonnell, of 12 Hamilton street; flenry Nicolls, of 58 Madhom street, and John Smith, of 48 New Howery. All were held for trial. Laid His Head on the Rail.

INFECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.1 WORLESTER, Mass., Sept. 28.—Levi Cobb, sixtyfive years old, deliberately laid his head across the track of the Boston and Maine Railroad near the Lincoin Square station at Solclock this morning just as an chapty car was coming towards him down grade. His neck was broken, and be need but a tew infinites.

Editor Laton Arrested. Louis Lafon, editor of L'Independent, was ar-rested by the Sheriff's deputy this morning in a cuit brought by Gustave May for $23,000 damages for manoious libel. Mr. Lafon gave $1,500 ball and was released. Mr. May is a member of numer-ous Franch specifies.

Maxwell C. Jackson, the "L" road conductor who was burt on the Ninth Avenue track, between Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh streets, last night, died at Roosevett Hospital early this morning. He was thirty-six years old, lived at 512 Jersey avenue, Jersey City, and has left a wife and four children.

THINK THEY HAVE MURDERER TASCOTT.

Denver Authorities Arrest a Man Who An swers the Printed Description. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, )

DENVER, Col., Sept. 28.-Late last night a usn giving his name as Edward J. Carter, enswering in many respects the description of Tascott, the murderer of Millionaire Snell, of Chicago, was arrested and placed in Denver juil on suspicion.

He had been employed in a Denver wind ouse as a bartender for two weeks. His ar rest was made quietly, and the cause has not yet been told the prisoner.

A bullet wound or scar was found on the man's leg, according to the description in the circulars sent out by the Chief of Chicago Police offering $10,000 reward for Tascot's capture, with the exception that it was a trille lower down, as were also the scars on the clower. He has a front tooth with a goal filling.

with a gold filling.

The police say his complexion is slightly dark. His mustache, the color of his hair, and his profile and features answer the description of Tascott.

The cause of the arrest was by orders of a man whose name is unknown at present, who

The cause of the arrest was by orders of a man whose name is unknown at present, who has followed Carter for several months through Oregon, Washington Territory, California and Nevada, keeping him constantly in sight and waiting for a favorable chance to cause his arrest. He arrived in the city on the same train with Carter and never took his eyes off of him until he was positive that Carter had taken a permanent position at the wine-house, and even then he hesitated, so as to make sure that there would be no misas to make sure that there would be no mis as to make sure that there would be no mistake.

When Carter's identity was established to the sleuth hound's satisfaction, he communicated with the police and the arrest was made before Carter had an idea that he was suspected of being Tascott.

He was neatly dressed at the time of the arrest in a black diagonal coat and vest, with light trousers, a black four-in-hand and a black derby hat.

THE BODY ON THE TRACK.

It Is Identified, but How It Came There I Not Learned. The body of the man who was picked up on the track of the Suburban Elevated road, at One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street, was fully identified this morning at the Harlem Hospital Morgue as that of Joseph Young. jr., an agent for the Ridgway Refrigerator Company, of Philadelphia, whose New York

He had a wife, a son twenty-seven years of age, who is Edgar Young, a travelling sales-office is at 168 Church street.

age, who is Edgar Young, a travelling salesman for W. B. Riley & Co., of 52 Leonard street, and an adopted daughter, sixteen years old.

An insurance policy on furniture at 259 West One Hundred and Thirteenth street was found on the dead man's person, and led to his identification.

He left his late place of residence three weeks ago, and had not secured another. Miss Young was ill and went to Philadelphia, where she still is. As soon as she came back a new house was to be taken, Miss Young is visiting with friends.

Mr. Young's friends say he was a levelheaded, cool man, without any troubles that were known and not given to drink.

Supt. G. B. Wetmore, of the Suburban L road, said to a reporter: "Conductor Patrick J. Bray noticed something dark on the track as he was going up at 10.24 p. M. yesterday.

as he was going up at 10.24 r. m. yesterday.

"He notified the down-train conductor at One Hundred and Thirty-eighth street, and the body was picked up. It was lying with the head towards the south, face downward, the head towards the south, face downward, between the inside guard rail, and the man was not only dead, but cold.

"He had bled profusely down into One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street. The black flannel coat was ripped up the back completely asunder, so that it was in two parts. The brake lever of the engine could have struck him and inflicted this injury to his head."

town After a Rough Experience. (SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.) QUEENSTOWN, Sept. 28. - The unfortunate ew Inman line steamer City of New York ar rived here to-day after a very rough trip. She reported having met with continuous gales, causing almost a panic among the passengers, three of whom were hurt. The vessel's pumps again proved defective. The journey from Sandy Hook to this port was made in eight days and two hours. The vessel was to have sailed Wednesday

ANOTHER SLOW TRIP.

Sept. 19, but was detained by the need for repairs until 5 o'clock the following morning. She crossed Sandy Hook bar at 7. 20. Twelve hours later she was sighted by the City of Berlin 170 miles east of the Hook. Another of G. W. C. Clarke's Shortcomines [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—It has just leaked out that the absconding President of that suspicious looking organization, known as the Constitutional Defense Association, George William C. Clarke secured a marriage li-cense on Aug. 2 to marry Miss Nora Davis Shep-pard, his typewriter.

The inference is that he has never married the The inference is that he has never married the girl whom he is taking about with him as his wife and who broke off her engagement with an estimable young man to make this alliance. The young lasty's relatives, who live at Sheeloh, N.J., are up in arms about the affair. He left several hotel oills unpaid and secured hundreds of dollars in dues from prominent business men who joined his Association.

Mr. O'Donobue's Bauner May Float. Supt. Richardson, of the Bureau of Encom-brances, says that his staff have been instructed to ake no action in the roatter of the banner which the Downtown Business Men's Cleveland and Thurman Cluo propose to swing across Broadway, near Bowling Green. The commant made by J. A. Dodsworth, of the Commercial Bulletin, thus talls through and Mr. J. J. O'Dononee may go ahead.

Death of a Deserted Baby. Annie Barry, of 224 East Eightieth street, called at the Coroner's office this morning to report the death of a child which she had been nursing. The ittle one was left with her by its mother, Mary ittle one was set with her by its mother, Mary Cooper, an unmarried domestic, on Monday, the 17th inst. All efforts to find the mother afterwards were without agail. Coroner Nugent issued an order requesting the public authorities to take charge of the case.

A Cabin Passenger Robbed of $1,200. H. S. Ryan, a cabin passenger on the Anchor ine steamer City of Rome, which arrived here from Liverpool to-day, notined the police on land-ing that he was robbed of $1,200 during the voyage. An investigation is in process and it is said an ar-rest has been made.

Paulan Again Beaten by Kemp. SYDNEY, N. S. W., Sept. 28.—The race for the PRICE ONE CENT.

BLAINE TALKS

Interviewed About the Result in the Pine Tree State.

Sure Harrison Will Carry New York, New Jersey and Connecticut.

The Plumed Knight Will Arrive Here at 7 O'Clock To-Night,

Boston, Sept. 28. - The hope of the Republican party-James G. Blaine-was found at Young's Hotel by an Evening World man this morning. Mr. Blaine appears to be in the best of health. "Don't ask me to talk for an interview." said the pride of his party to the reporter, as he extended his hand. "I haven't time. Besides when I have anything to say I can tell it in my speeches and you can get it at "But THE EVENING WORLD wants to know your opinion of the Maine election, Mr. Blaine. Is it as big a Republican victory as you expected ?" "Yes" (rather feebly), "It is good enough. It showed we were on the right side and were not deceived by the talk of the chongh. It showed we were on the right side and were not deceived by the talk of the opposition."

"But was it targe enough to affect the country?"

"That depends upon the feelings and preferences of the men who interpret the result. It was large enough to satisfy me that the Mills bill was not indorsed by the voters of Maine. In fact the Democrats of Maine have never made a fight to win but twice since the war. The first was 1880, when they whipped us. The second was this year. I think the people of the country know how Maine has gone in 1888. I am satisfied."

"Do you think there is any danger of Harrison's defeat?"

"I can see none. New York is a large manufacturing State and will assuredly vote for Protection. The same can be said of Connecticut and New Jersey. The closest State of the North will be Indians, but I think Gen. Harrison's personal popularity and the interests of the working people will give us a good majority there. My opinion is that Harrison and Morton will carry every Northern State, also California, Oregon and Nevada. They will get a large majority of the electoral vote, if I am not greatly mistaken."

"How many speeches will you make this fall, Mr. Blaine?"

greatly mistaken."

"How many speeches will you make this fall. Mr. Blaine?"

"I shall talk as much as my voice will permit. I have not spoken for so long that I find an hour's speech in a big hall very trying to my laryn. Still, I am taking good care of myself, and hope to sustain the strength of my voice until the end of the campaign."

"And your general health, Mr. Blaine?"

"Splendid. I eat heartily, sleep well and cannot complain of a single ill.

"Splendid. I cat heartily, sleep well and cannot complain of a single ill. I feel that I am blessed with an excellent constitutional which I am taking every pains to preserve. I had rather have good health than anything else in the world."

Walker Blaine, polite and gentlemanly:
"Joe" Manloy, always genial and always "Joe" Manley, always genial and always loaded with good stories, are with Mr. Blaine at Young's. Of course all the Republican magnates bonored him with their cards, and magnates honored him with their cards, and all considered a smile and a grasp of his hand better than a benediction.

Mr. Blaine leaves for New York on the 1

. M. Shore line express. THE MAN FROM MAINE.

Line at 1 o'clock this afternoon, and is due

He Is on Ills Way Here, So Hurrab for To-Merrow Night's Big Meeting. James G. Blaine left Boston via the Shore in this city at 7 o'clock this evening. The Republicans have made great preparations for the Plumed Knight's reception and the mass-meeting at the Polo Grounds tomorrow evening. Rooms have been engaged for Mr. Blaine and his son Walker, and while Mr. Blaine, Gov. Foraker, Major McKinley and the other distinguished Republican speakers are in town they will be the guests of the Harlem Republican Club, a committee from which body will see that they are well-cared for.

from which body will see that they are well-cared for.

There will not be any demonstration on Mr. Blaine's arrival, the Harlem Club knowing that the Maine statesman does not like that sort of thing as a rule. He will therefore go quietly to his hotel along with the Committee and rest until to-morrow.

Channeey M. Depew, having accepted an invitation to speak at Pawling, will not be present at the meeting as expected.

Among the speakers who will be present at the Polo Grounds to-morrow night besides the man from Maine will be Congressman William E. Mason. of Chicago, Gov. Foraker, Gen. Woodford, James P. Foster, W. C. Plummer, John F. Finerty, Gen. A. E. King, Congressman Butterworth and A. L. Morrison.

Colder, Fair Weather.

Weather indications: For

Colder : fair : north-

Consumption Curable.

It cannot be too often impressed on every one that the much dreaded consumption (which is only lung scrofula) is curable if attended to at once, and that the primary symptoms, so diten mistaken as signs of diseased lungs, are only symptoms of an unneality liver. To this organ the system is indebted for pure blood, and to pure blood the lings are indebted no less than to pure air for healthy are indebted no less than to pure air for healthy are indebted no less than to pure air for healthy are indebted no less than to pure air for healthy are indebted no less than to pure air for healthy are indebted in the feath of such that we have the hacking cough, the hectic fluss, night-aweats and a whole train of symptoms resembling consumption. However, action is the liver to healthy action by the use of Dr. Piercz's Golden Medical Discoveny, take healthy exercise, live in the open air, and all symptoms of consumption will disappear. For weak lungs, spitting of blood, shortness at breath, chronic has a catarta, bronchitis, asthma, severe coughs and kindred affections it is a most wenderful remedy.